The object is to have as small attendance upon the court from the country as possible for fear of introducing the smallpox into the town. No cases of smallpox have been reported in the county thus far, but a number have been reported from towns close to the border, hence the precaution.

IVEY ARRAIGNED IN COURT

The Accused Charged With Receiving Stolen Goods.

The Police Are Proceeding on the Theory That the Prisoner Acted in Concert With His Brother, Who Is Now in the Hands of Authorities at Savannah-Jewelry Taken.

Robert D. Ivey, the compositor employed on a morning newspaper in this city, and arrested last night by Detectives Muller and Baur, charged with receiving stolen goods was arraigned before Judge Kimball in the Police Court this morning and the case against him continued for ten days. This action was taken by the court at the request of the Government in order to enable the police to make a further investigation regarding the accused and to deternine what future action will be taken against him.

It is thought probable that Ivey will be sent to Kansas City or Thomasville, Ga. In default of $2,000 bond he will remain at the District jail to await further action. Ivey denies that he is guilty of any wrongdoing, but it is said admitted to Inspector Boardman that the circumstances surrounding his action appeared suspicious. The arrest of Ivey was the result of an estigation begun about two weeks ago by Major Sylvester and Inspector Board-Ivey was placed under surveillan and in fact was several days ago induced part with a quantity of diamonds, jewelry, etc., valued at over $500. The jew elry, he said was the property of his broth Georgia under the name of L. H. West, It is said that he is suspected of having committed numerous robberies in the South during the past two or three years and secured diamonds, jewelry, etc., to the value of many dollars. The local police claim that Ivey has been acting as a fence

The investigation which resulted in the arrest of Ivey was caused by information Major Sylvester had that West was under arrest at Savannah, Ga. The Savannah poarrest at Savannah, Ga. The Savannah police then knew little or nothing of their prisoner, but as he had valuable jewelry, including thirteen unset diamonds, ranging from one-half carat to two and one-half carats in size, a gold watch set with twelve four grain pearls, a $300 diamond and emerald ring, and a diamond and ruby grasshopper pin, all of the value of several thousand dollars it was decided that he had not come by them honestly. Major Sylvester was asked to aid the Savannah police. Detective Muller was sent to Savannah and he saw West and the recovered jewelry.

A further investigation is said to have connected him with the robbery of the home of Gen. J. S. Carr, at Durham. N. C., of $10,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry, and and the robbery of J. William Merrill, of Kansas City. A watch found in the possession of West is said to have been identified by Mr. Merrill.

Subsequently it was learned that West had about $15,000 worth of jewelry secreted. usand dollars were stolen. A re-

Detectives Muller and Baur located Ivey and confronted him with alleged evidence of his acceptance of stolen goods. Ivey ad-mitted having a certain amount of jewelry, and claimed that it belonged to his brother in Savannah and said he would willingly give it up if it had been stolen. He consented to take the detectives to his room and turn over what property he had in his possession. The police believe that Ivey has more jewelry

THINGS THEATRICAL

II. Helen Russell, and others, iioward Gould, the clever young romantic actor, who created an exceflent impression here by means of his work in "The Prisoner of Zenda," will be seen next week at the Columbia. The play which is to serve him as a vehicle is Grace Furniss and Abby Sage Richardson's "A Colonial Girl," which had a cun during the autumn of 1898 at the Lyseum Theatre, New York. The piece is said to afford Mr. Gould unlimited coportunity for a display of his abilities, and unquestionably has won him high praise this year. The production is ctor, who created an excellent impression high praise this year. The production is described as being sumptuous in very way. Seats for the engagement went on sale his morning.

Not many years ago the vaudeville stage boasted of few workers more talented and popular than Lydia Yeamans Titus, who is to headline next week's bill at the Grand. If it is true that she has lost none of her grace and magnetism since last she was here, the singer and mimic is assured of making numbers of admirers during her coming engagement. She will be well supported, among her co-laborers at the Grand being Haines and Pettingill, blacfaced comedians; Bonner, a trained equine; aced comedians; Bonner, a trained equine be Veaux and De Veaux, instrumentalists Seymour and Dupree, who are known as "The Chinaman and the Soubrette;" Dick and Alice McAvoy, whose sketch is dubbed "Casey's Corner," and the Sutcliffe family of acrobats. The performances doubtless will be well attended.

An inspiring title is that chosen by Sam orning Glories," which is to be seen on onday afternoon at Kernan's. The com-Monday afternoon at Kernan's. The combination is said to be quite as attractive as its name would imply. Its entertainments are begun with the rendering of a farce, entitled "Mile. Charmion's Reception," and terminated with the presentation of another, dubbed "Helen's Frie; or The Cruise of the Gold Bug." Between these comes an olio in which are introduced such people as Webb and Hassan, Harry Walters, Black and Franks, Bessie Taylor, Dryden and Leslie, and Grant and Grant. There will be daily matinees.

Opinion of Mason's Cream of Olives

Ointmeat.

I suffered with a terrifi. Neuralgia for three-days hand running without being able to get redays hand running without being able to get redief. Pain was located over the right eye and ear, and I suffered intensely and could not masticate solid food. A friend had impressed me with the many virtues of Mason's Cream of Olives Ointment as a magical healter, so I applied it to my forehead and put some into my ear, and rubbed it on behind the ear. Presto! Relief instantly, and in a few hours not a vestige of pain was left behind and I've had no return of it since. It gives me great pleasure through my personal experience to recommend such a superlatively meritorious Ointment to my large circle of friends. I am now using it on my sprained ankle, and find greater relief than from anything I -ave yet tried, and I feel assured of a complete and speedy cure.

Muller learned that West was in communication with Ivey and that the latter had malled packages of fewelry to West. Several of the packages addressed to West fell into the hands of the police after his arrest. Muller returned to Washington and Ivey was put under surveillance.

In the meantime a Pinkerton detective who had business in Savannah identified the jewelry and diamonds taken from West as the proceeds of a robbery committed in Thomasville, Ga., in January, 1899. The home of C. S. Helard was entered and jewelry and diamonds to the value of several thousand dollars were stolen. A recommendation of the proceeding of the several thousand dollars were stolen.
